On March 27, 2000, Teamsters Union, Local 117, filed a complaint alleging that the Port of Seattle had committed unfair labor practices when it subcontracted out bargaining unit work at Pier 66. A preliminary ruling was issued under WAC 391-45-110, finding a cause of action to exist. On May 1, 2000, the respondent filed an answer to the complaint wherein it disputed paragraphs 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, and 16 of the complaint.

On July 26, 2000, the employer filed a motion for summary judgment wherein it sought dismissal of the complaint. Examination of the documents leads to the conclusion that an evidentiary hearing is necessary to process the case to conclusion.

NOW THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

The employer's motion for summary judgement is DENIED.

Dated at Olympia, Washington, on this 23rd day of January, 2001.
