Attorney General Robert M. McKenna, by Andrew Logerwell, Assistant Attorney General, for the employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Washington Federation of State Employees filed a petition for investigation of a question concerning representation with the Public Employment Relations Commission, for the Commodity Inspector classification at the Washington State Department of Agriculture. The petition was timely filed and accompanied by a showing of interest which was administratively determined by the Commission to be sufficient. No other organization is known to claim to represent the employees involved.
2. The existing bargaining unit represented by the Washington Federation of State Employees is described as:

All employees in permanent position within the Grain Branch of the Grain and Chemical Division, Department of Agriculture, with the exception of the Grain Inspector IV and positions supervisory thereto.
3. All proceedings were conducted under the supervision of the Commission in a manner designed to afford the affected employees a free choice in the selection of whether they wished to be represented by the Washington Federation of State Employees in its existing bargaining unit. A confidential cross-check of employer and union documents has been conducted by the Commission staff and a tally of the results previously furnished to the parties is attached hereto; and no meritorious objections have been filed with respect to these proceedings.

4. The existing bargaining unit represented by the Washington Federation of State Employees shall be modified to include the Commodity Inspector classification for a bargaining unit described as:

All non-supervisory civil service employees covered by Chapter 41.06 RCW and Chapter 41.80 RCW of the Washington State Department of Agriculture in the Grain Branch of the Grain and Chemical Division, excluding supervisors, confidential employees, WMS employees, and all other employees.

CONCLUSION OF LAW
