All full-time and regular part-time employees of the Town of Milton excluding elected officials, officials appointed for a specified term of office, confidential employees, supervisors and fire fighters.

3. All proceedings were conducted under the supervision of the Commission in a manner designed to afford the affected employees a free choice in the selection of their bargaining representative, if any; a tally of the results was previously furnished to the parties and is attached hereto; and no meritorious objections have been filed with respect to these proceedings.
