WHIDBEY GENERAL HOSPITAL	)	CASE NO. 1338-E-78-265

On October 31, 1977, a petition was filed with the Commission and docketed as Case No. 1174-E-77-221, seeking decertification of IS-SKA-WHA Socio-Economic Committee as the representative of radiological technologists employed by Skagit Valley Hospital. On January 17, 1978, a petition was filed with the Commission and docketed as Case No. 1338-E-78-265, seeking decertification of IS-SKA-WHA Socio-Economic Committee as the representative of radiological technologists employed by Whidbey General Hospital. Both petitions relate to a multi-employer bargaining unit certified by the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries covering Whidbey General Hospital, Island Hospital, Skagit Valley Hospital and United General Hospital. Case No. 0-1346, October 3, 1973. The organization has previously disclaimed representation rights with respect to United General Hospital.

On February 14, 1978, the Commission received correspondence from the IS-SKA-WHA Socio-Economic Committee, indicating that the organization disclaims all bargaining rights in the multi-employer bargaining unit in which it was previously certified, and that the organization is to be discontinued.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

1. The certification of representatives issued by the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries in Case No. 0-1346 is withdrawn.

2. The petitions filed in the above-entitled matters are dismissed on the basis that no question concerning representation presently exists.

Dated at Olympia, Washington this 16th day of February, 1978.
