

STATE OF WASHINGTON

BEFORE THE PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION

In the matter of the petition of:

CLARK COUNTY PROSECUTORS GUILD

Involving certain employees of:

CLARK COUNTY

CASE 23791-E-11-3628

DECISION 11050-A - PECB

ORDER CLOSING CASE

On February 7, 2011, Clark County Prosecutors Guild filed a petition for investigation of a question concerning representation with the Public Employment Relations Commission, involving certain employees of Clark County. As a result of preliminary processing of the petition, the Commission determined the question concerning representation, and issues concerning the eligibility of certain employees for inclusion in the bargaining unit were reserved for subsequent determination. The tally indicated that Clark County Prosecutors Guild was entitled to certification in the matter, and that the reserved eligibility issues were not of a sufficient number to affect the outcome of the proceedings.

An interim certification was issued in this matter, as Clark County, Decision 11050 (PECB, 2011) for the bargaining unit described as:

All regular full-time and part-time prosecuting attorneys of Clark County, excluding employees in the Civil Division except employees in Child Enforcement, supervisors, confidential employees, the positions of Chief Criminal Deputy, Chief Deputy, and all other employees.

The proceeding was held open to resolve the eligibility disputes previously framed by the parties.

Prior to issuance of a decision on the eligibility issues, the parties resolved their differences. It therefore appears that all issues that could properly be addressed in this representation proceeding have been resolved, and that no further proceedings are necessary.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is ORDERED

1. The interim certification issued in this matter will stand as the final certification in this representation proceeding.
2. The above-captioned matter is CLOSED.

Issued at Olympia, Washington, on the 21st day of July, 2011.
