Chuck Foster, Washington State School Directors' Association, appeared on behalf of the district. Brief on review filed by Williams & Terry, by John David Terry II, attorney at law.

G. P. Sessions, attorney at law, appeared on behalf of the union.

By petition for review timely filed in the captioned matter, Public School Employees of Washington, and its affiliate Public School Employees of Naches, has requested review by the Public Employment Relations Commission of the decision issued in the captioned matter by its Executive Director on October 14, 1980.

In its brief in support of its petition for review, the union disputes the factual conclusions reached by the Executive Director concerning clerical employees working in the office of the Superintendent of Schools, disagrees generally with the unit determination policies of this Commission, disagrees with policies enunciated by this Commission in City of Richland, Decision 279-A (PECB, 1978) as to when a unit clarification can be obtained, and disagrees with the factual conclusions reached by the Executive Director concerning a food services supervisor. The employer supports the decision of the Executive Director, citing Richland, supra, and Bethel School District, Decision 882-A (PECB, 1980).

The Commission has reviewed the entire record, including the transcript of the hearing and the briefs of the parties, and finds no basis for reversal of the Executive Director's decision in any respect.
